ATTEND DAIRY SHOW

Mo., Oct. 19 (AP).—The champions for 1929 in dairy her with an array of beavers, fowls and pets, all in national competition, center of attraction today at Dairy Show.

had been completed and the big animals were "dressed" exhibit stalls to be viewed tomorrow, the closing day of show. Attendance tonight had all previous records for the position, approaching the record mark.

Grand championships in the show went to prize animals from Eastern breeders. New Jersey each got two and Rhode Island one.

STRIKE THREATENED

Oct. 19 (AP).—The 11-day Drivers' Union strike, which has been overshadowed by the bus walkout, attracted public attention today when a sympathy strike by seashoremen was threatened. Wholesale grocery concerns are behind the strike of the drivers, offering a $10 weekly pay. The firms have offered to meet with the drivers as individuals but have refused to recognize the union.

Shoremen may be called out, it was announced, in order to insure produce deliveries from companies from reaching the market.

UNCONSCIOUS IN HOTEL

Oct. 19 (AP).—Ross Oenslager, Harrisburg business man, unconscious in his hotel room and was taken to a hospital. Officials maintain silence, but the hotel manager says Oenslager's throat had to be shaved.

Oenslager was made a $100,000 breach of contract by Miss Iva M. Carberry, whom he had been friendly for years. He found the man uncon- repeated rings on his telephone to elicit an answer.

MENNONITE CHURCH ASSIGNS MINISTERS

REV. E. N. CASSEL RETURNED TO READING CONGREGATION BY CONFERENCE.

Bethlehem, Oct. 19 (AP).—At the sessions of the Mennonite Brethren in Christ Church here today, ministers were assigned and Allentown was selected as the next meeting place. Revs. H. B. Musselman, B. Byron Musselman and C. H. Brunner were elected president to make changes in rules upon recommendation of the Tariff Commission.

Speaking of tariffs as included in the scope of the federal farm program, the Cabinet member argued the rapidly changing economic conditions of modern times have made the flexible policy, and "will continue to make it" of peculiar value for agriculture.

"Out of 33 increase made in tariff schedules under the flexible provision," he said, "13 have been on farm products, 12 on chemicals, 4 on earthenware and glass, and the rest scattered. Wheat, flour, butter, cheese, cherries, onions, peanuts, eggs, flaxseed, milk and cream are the agricultural products upon which the tariff has been increased. It is not too much to say that increases made under the flexible provision saved the dairy industry from disaster."

INDICTED FOR MURDER IN QUARREL OVER GIRL

STEAMSHIP OFFICER ACCUSED OF SLAYING ADVENTURER FACES ARREST WHEN VESSEL DOCKS.

Pointe a la Hache, La., Oct. 19 (AP).—John McGouldrick, second officer of the steamship Creole, was indicted late today by the Plaquemine Parish grand jury for the murder of Jack Kraft, New York newspaper employe and adventurer. Ione Ord, companion of Kraft, and Sam Epstein, steamship steward, were ordered held as material witnesses without bail.

District Attorney Leander Perez, of Plaquemine Parish, requested a warrant charging McGouldrick with murder. Earlier he had telegraphed New York police to arrest McGouldrick when the New York-New Orleans steamship Creole docks there Monday.

Miss Ione Ord, artist companion of Kraft on a wandering trip, was brought back to New Orleans, where she will be held in jail until women's quarters can be constructed in this river village.

Her story, told to the grand jury behind guarded doors, brought the indictment against the second officer, whom she said she "loved," but who had acted "like a cad" in going off and leaving her in jail.

All of the principals in the case were bound to secrecy on the details of the crime aboard ship, where the young New York newspaper employe was shot through the heart and his body thrown into the river, after he had choked the girl in a jealous frenzy because of her attention to McGouldrick and Epstein on the cruise from New York.
