- D The moral bankruptcy of our society is well-documented. But, few people understand why we have become morally bankrupt. However, when we look at society through the eyes of God, through the Bible, we can easily see why we are facing the unprecedented troubles today. This study of America through the eyes of God is what we will always try to do here; stay with us for some eye-opening truths.

Since early November, we have been stating, at the beginning of every show, that we will give you insights so startling that you would never read the news the same way again. Toward this end, we have been laying the groundwork conceptually, providing insights into current world events that most people have never thought of before. Today, we would like to utilize these fundamental concepts as we look at some of today's news.

NEWS BRIEF: People Magazine, January 20, 1992, "I Helped My Mother Die: Love Unto Death", p. 56-63.

The drumbeat is getting more intense in the campaign to convince Americans that Personal Suicide is noble, courageous, normal, and the best for society. In this true story, Ida Rollin, the mother of NBC Correspondent Betty Rollin, was suffering from terminal ovarian cancer. Before we continue with this story, we need to quickly review how it fits into the scheme of the coming New World Order.

As we have stated before, the New Age Movement has repeatedly reiterated their view that Mother Earth is seriously over-populated. Our current 6 billion people is 4 billion more than can be adequately supported. Therefore, we must immediately move to reduce this population. One of the immediate steps which they have advocated is Human Euthanasia, beginning with the terminally ill. It is difficult to argue with anyone who wants to escape from a terminal, painful illness. This is truly a personal decision.

The danger which this persistent advocacy of euthanasia poses to society is that history has amply proven it is a very slippery slope. Once the majority of the population becomes convinced of a person's right to die under certain circumstances, the door is opened just enough so that people will then allow someone else to make this life-ending situation for the terminally ill. This probably would be a close relative at first, but would later become Hospital doctors or administrators. Finally, compassionate doctors acting on behalf of the government would be making this decision, and we would have another genocide occurring. This progression of events occurred just in this way in Germany from 1920-1940.

In the 1920's, articles occurred in newspapers and magazines quite regularly arguing that people should be allowed to kill themselves, with help from relatives. Always, the situation was so grim that no one could argue against the suicide decision without appearing to lack compassion. The articles were written so that the decision to commit suicide seemed noble, courageous, and societally correct. Movies were made which depicted these circumstances very emotionally.

A parallel campaign was simultaneously being waged to convince Germans that the resources of the German Fatherland were being drained away by people whose quality of life had deteriorated so badly that they had no right to continue to live. These people were the very elderly, the mentally and physically handicapped, and the Jew.

By the late 1920's, individual doctors were taking matters into their own hands and were killing people in their care, even when the ill person had no desire to exit. Very soon, tens of thousands of people were being killed by a mis-application of medical care. Death certificates were faked so that the true cause of death was hidden.

When Adolf Hitler came to power, he combined these two threads so that anyone who was terminally ill or handicapped in some way was being systematically killed. From 1933-45, this killing was being carried out in medical or nursing care institutions. In 1938, when Hitler began his systematic death camp killing, he decided to maintain the facade of medical decision-making. Therefore, he picked certain doctors who had been active in euthanasia in their facilities to direct the massive state-wide killing. To the very end of the war, medical doctors directed the slaughter.

Robert Jay Lifton, in his book, The Nazi Doctors, emphatically declares that without the first step of human euthanasia, Hitler would never have been able to carry out his program of slaughter. By 1938, enough German citizens had become desensitized to the concept of human killing that they did not offer resistance to the final step of forced killing. Remember that Hitler's plans were so massive they required the willing contribution of millions of German citizens. Hitler provided the figleaf covering of medical necessity in the forced euthanasia program so that Germans could feel justified in either actively participating in it or passively allowing it to continue.

Our tremendous concern is fueled by the fact that history does repeat itself because human nature never changes. Further, when we realize the New Age Movement is just sanitized Nazism and that their plans actively call for the greatest reduction in population the world has ever seen, we have ample reason to be concerned.

Let us now return to our story.

NBC News correspondent, Betty Rollin, assisted her 76-year-old mother, Ida Rollins, in suicide. Ida was suffering from terminal ovarian cancer and wanted to escape the pain. Notice the passages in this story which depict the hopelessness which Ida felt.

* "Positive thinking...could not dispel the pain that racked Ida's body when, once a month, she was hooked up to an IV. She would vomit every 15 minutes...It was torture."

* "The prognosis was grim. Ida's tumor was growing...pressing against her bowels, hurting her, blocking her intestines, making it difficult to eat or even swallow."

Now Ida makes her noble and courageous decision to check out. "It was at that point...that she decided to die.. 'I've had a wonderful life, but now it's over," Ida said. "It's time to go." And her daughter, Betty, agreed. The only question remained how, as neither one knew how to medically accomplish Ida's desire. Betty contacted several doctors and pharmacists, only to have these insensitive fools refuse to tell her how to kill her mother. Finally, a friend of Betty told her of a doctor in Europe who supported Euthanasia. Betty contacted him; he sold her the pills and gave her explicit instructions. Ida was very happy. Four days later, Betty assisted Ida in her death.

This all occurred in 1983. Since then, Betty has lost both her breasts to cancer, and "death is never far" from her mind. But, such societal progress has now been made in the acceptability of personal suicide that Betty does not have to worry about not knowing how to commit suicide. She keeps her "copy of Final Exit prominently displayed on her coffee table". Final Exit is the current best-selling book which explicitly instructs anyone how to commit suicide or how to assist someone else. Betty is one of the 520,000

Americans who have purchased the book thus far. America is clearly very far down that acceptability road which Germany travelled just a few decades ago.

But, soon, many more Americans will be persuaded that personal suicide is the correct action to take, both personally and societally. During this past week, ABC aired a program based upon Rollin's story entitled Last Wish, starring Patty Duke and Maureen Stapleton. The process of persuasion continues very effectively. This campaign is being conducted utilizing the Six-Step Attitudinal Change Plan. Step #4, that of Sheer Repetition, is continuing. People's attitudes against suicide is being eroded. Soon, we will be at the point of which Revelation speaks, when men will slaughter one another.

The New World Order Plan to establish a One-World Government that is capable of totalitarian control over both individuals and the Economy is proceeding without delay. Consider these two news briefs from a Christian Newsletter, Michael's Journal, September-October, 1991.

NEWS BRIEF: Quoting from the French Press Agency in Paris, "To live without cash in France will soon be possible: Posts [Post Office] and Telecommunications will launch in France in 1992 an electronic wallet, allowing the payment of all one's purchases with a card containing a micro-computer chip ... The system will be tried out for 18 months in an average city. If successful, that system will be generalized all over France."

Revelation 13:16-17, "He [False Prophet] compels all alike both small and great, the rich and the poor, both free and slave, to be marked with an inscription stamped on their right hands or on the foreheads, so that no one will have the power to buy or sell unless he bears the stamp [mark], that is, the name of the beast or the number of his name."

Biblical scholars have long maintained that this prophecy could not be fulfilled unless all cash was eliminated from the economy. Until the advent of the computer, scholars had no idea how this feat could be accomplished. In 1986, when I was in Hong Kong for business I saw this cash-less system being tested in large grocery stores. In 1989, this system was introduced into the United States in certain gasoline stations. This is the first instance of which I am aware that a cashless system is being introduced in an entire economic environment, i.e., selected towns. Soon, all France will be converted.

Notice that this interim step does not require persons to be physically marked. Thus, people will be conditioned toward a cashless economy and will be ready to accept marking once the very charismatic and popular Maitreya the Christ arises. Now consider this other interim step.

Again quoting from Michael's Journal: "The veins of the hand could be used to thwart credit card fraud through a technique perfected by researchers of the Cambridge British group of technology. Instead of dialing the secret code, the credit card owners will put their fists into a machine that will read the design of the veins on the reverse of their hands...The design of the veins will then be compared [by the machine's computer] with that of the card owner, recorded before...The camera will even be able to detect if the hand put in the machine really belongs to a living person, by measuring the rate of oxygen in the veins."

This sophisticated technology does indeed stagger the imagination. Truly, Satan could never have united the world in the manner required to fulfill all God's prophecies without modern technology. In our Seminar, we examine the question, "Why has the Twentieth Century witnessed the historically unparalleled explosion of technology, starting in the first decade?" Is there any scientific evidence that man in this century is more intelligent than in previous centuries? There is no such scientific evidence. To understand a possible explanation, consider what some New Age and technological leaders have recently said:

- * Computers: Marcel Vogel, an occultist who was one of the original inventors of the IBM computers, claimed that he had received the inspiration for his computer coding during a psychic molasses dream. In other words, a demon worked through Mr. Vogel to create the computer!! Now consider other inventors which were also occultists.

- * Thomas Edison was a dedicated Theosophist.

- * Both inventors of the Apple computer were occultists. To demonstrate that the computer had an occultic base, they priced it at $666.66.

- * The developer of the Xeroxographic process credited his invention to a psychic dream.

- * New Age author Alice Bailey reveals the atomic bomb "emerged from a first ray Ashram (demon) working in conjunction with a fifth group" (scientists working for the American government).

At this point, we need to ask the inevitable question: As the Holy Spirit began to withdraw His restraining power, as the Apostle Paul predicted He would do in the last days, did Satan rush into the resulting vacuum? Consider Satan's problem. He wanted to rule the world, but could only do so as the Holy Spirit withdrew His restraining power. Further, Jesus set a TIMETABLE to this process in Matthew 24:34, when He prophesied that all last days' prophecies would occur within one human lifetime. Satan could not control the world as God had prophesied with the level of technology which existed in the beginning of this century. To fulfill God's prophecies of a one-world government, and a one-world cashless economy, Satan needed modern technology.

Satan is conceivably responsible for the incredibly quick technological advance which has been achieved since World War I.

I have listed below some of the required technologies:

- * Computers to enable government to control every one on earth to such a precise degree that "no one could buy or sell" without the mark in their right hand or forehead.

- * World-wide instant communication.

- * Transportation: world-wide, efficient, and fast. New Age author, Alan Neuharth, the editor of USA Today, stated in his book, Nearly One World, that the jet engine was greatly responsible for the world coming together into a One-World Society.

- * Mass media, especially TV, that would allow the masses to be reconditioned. Chief among this conditioning is a global societal change which is reducing the cultural differences of peoples throughout the world. God foiled the plans of man at the Tower of Babel to create a One-World Society by causing different languages to suddenly appear so that people could no longer communicate well enough to build the Tower. People who could understand each other gathered into groups and rather quickly physically moved to other locations. This moving away from the other groups soon involved thousands of miles, creating the current system of nations which we have been traditionally familiar. These separate nations speaking different languages soon produced different cultures, with widely differing values and ways of looking at life. These cultural differences acted as an additional brake against the uniting in a One-World Society. All this has changed dramatically, as Neuharth's book details. Neuharth points out the changes --

"...More and more people [throughout the world] are:

- * Eating the same foods
- * Reading the same books
- * Watching the same movies
- * Listening to the same music
- * Enjoying the same sports
- * Sharing the same dreams and drives

How has this historically unprecedented change occurred? Neuharth identifies the agent of change as coming from America. "Much of the common ground comes from the global spread of U.S. pop culture -- which has become everybody's culture....Today, the world is coming closer to what Marshall McLuhan predicted 25 years ago: a global village." (p. 5-6)

Neuharth then devotes an entire chapter to cite examples of how so many nations in the world are uniting because of their acceptance of American culture, American values. He concludes this chapter by saying

"..History will look back on this as the American Age...the beat of rock 'n' roll builds bridges, not barriers." (p. 13, 19)

This is a serious indictment against a formerly Christian America. These cultural values are not Christian values. These values contain much objectionable, sinful, and even Satanic values. And they are paving the way for the coming New World Order, Satan's kingdom. God will call America to judgment for this deception of the peoples of the world. This activity literally is leading people into Hell. Remember the Biblical principle that a nation, or individuals, will be held accountable for the amount of spiritual light which they have received. America has received massive amounts of true Biblical Christianity, and we have rejected it in the last 25 years. The replacement has been unChristian and is now polluting the world and leading the nations into the arms of Anti-Christ.

The final lie which we are encouraging the world to believe is that man is inherently good. This false belief is causing people to believe that man can create his own utopia if only people would begin thinking positive thoughts and only if a Enlightened One would arise to provide the proper leadership. Of course, this paves the way for Anti-Christ.

I am convinced that the reason God will allow the world to briefly unite under Anti-Christ is so that, on Judgment Day, no man could say to Him, "God, if You had only left mankind alone, we could have created our own Utopia, without Your divisive commandments." By allowing man to try to create his own Utopia, God will eternally prove that man's nature is so inherently evil that he could never create Utopia.

Update: On December, 1991, we shared a report with you which we had received from Kathleen O'Hayes of National Research Institute. Kathleen reported she had received information that the Seal of the New World Order had been created by an artist who was world-renowned for his work in Black Coral. She had personally talked with this artist, and felt him to be credible. He stated that a ceremony to officially unveil this Seal would occur before December, 1991, as long as several conditions were met:

Present at the ceremony will be:

- * President George Bush
- * President Mikhail Gorbachev
- * Pope John Paul II

They will announce the beginning plans of a state church world government. This seal will then remain in Rome after the unveiling, in a conspicuous place where all the world could see and it "would remain there until the world ends", quoting the artist to whom the contract for creating the seal was given.

While the December date is firm, there are some events which must come to pass before the unveiling can occur:

- * All current leaders must remain the same.
- * Earthquakes
- * Economic chaos
- * Continuing build-up of United Nations' credibility
- * All Western hostages held by Islamic extremists must be released

BUT
THE LAST REQUIRED EVENT BEFORE THE UNVEILING IS SUPER-NATURAL.

Pope John Paul II is "anxiously awaiting a potent world-wide Marian Vision. This vision will validate the global reign of Pope John Paul II, and will establish him as the ultimate spiritual Judge of the Planet..."

Obviously, this did not happen. However, we do believe that the events described above will occur; we just were misled concerning the timing. Bill Cooper, in his book, Behold A Pale Horse, commented that this drive to the New World Order was being conducted in the manner of a military intelligence campaign. This should not surprise us, because the CIA, the KGB, and other Western intelligence services are deeply involved in the planning and implementation of the New World Order. In military intelligence, the location and timing of the operation are as important than the operation itself. The enemy may know the details of the operation, but may be defeated if he does not know the location and the timing. The WWII Normandy invasion is an excellent case in point: The Germans know that the Allies were going to invade Europe, but did not know the timing or the location. Just before the attack, the Allies implemented a strong and effective disinformation campaign to confuse the Germans as to the timing and the location. General George Patton was outfitted with a false army, and information was falsely leaked that seemed to place the attack in the south of France. Thus, when the attack on Normandy commenced, the Germans withheld some of their best military units to thwart the real attack in the south of France. They falsely believed that the Normandy attack was a diversion. Their defeat came largely because they were deceived as to location and timing.

We believe this is occurring now with regard to this information which we shared with you concerning the Seal of the New World Order. Now that we are close to the implementation of the Plan, it is time to release disinformation as to timing and location. This would discredit those of us who understand many, if not most, of the details of the Plan.

Do not be deceived: This Plan is forthcoming, and will probably occur much as we have detailed.
