- D The moral bankruptcy of our society is well-documented. But, few people understand why we have become morally bankrupt. However, when we look at society through the eyes of God, through the Bible, we can easily see why we are facing the unprecedented troubles today. This study of America through the eyes of God is what we will always try to do here; stay with us for some eye-opening truths.

During the last week of January and the first week of February, the leaders of the Western nations which are driving toward the New World Order achieved great new strides toward their goal. We shall share these news events with you today, explaining their tremendous significance. Truly, you will never look at the news the same way again. As we are examining this extra-ordinary news, we will be quoting the original Plans for the New World Order, as written many years ago. We will be reporting this news with articles from both the Providence Journal and Sun Chronicle, both dated 2/1/92.

NEWS BRIEF: "UN Leads New World Order", The Sun Chronicle, Saturday, 2-1-92, "It was an extraordinary snapshot of the New World Order as envisioned by President Bush: American, Russian, Chinese, and other world leaders side by side, working together...They set about building the new world on the foundation of the refurbished United Nations..." The United Nations was called "indispensable" to the world by one leader.

"...The Security Council is beginning a fresh effort to keep the peace through an application of...'preventive diplomacy'. That means stopping crises from turning into wars by supplying troops to a Security Council force for the purpose of maintaining peace and security."

We need to stop here and analyze the extraordinary news we have just shared with you. For the first time in world history, the Security Council of the United Nations met, with each of the Permanent Members being represented by their respective heads of state. Normally, each country is represented by their appointed United Nation's Ambassador. Therefore, this meeting was planned to achieve something spectacular.

The results were truly spectacular.

First, they voted to establish a permanent military for the United Nations. But, we should not be surprised, for Alice Bailey foresaw this need many years ago. In November, 1939, Bailey wrote, "In the preparatory period for the New World Order, there will be a steady and regulated disarmament. It will not be optional. No nation will be permitted to produce and organize any equipment for destructive purposes or to infringe the security of any nation. One of the first tasks...will be to...gradually see to the disarming of the nations." (Bailey, The Externalisation of the Hierarchy, p. 191). This extraordinary statement is breathtaking in its implications for God's ordained Plan for the sovereignty of the nations. A single-governmental authority, unborn in 1939, is foreseen as exercising sovereign control over all the nations of the world, to the point of disarming them and preventing any nation from building a military again.

Later, Bailey identifies this One-World Government as the United Nations. No government can force another to do anything if it does not possess a military force. The military has historically been THE key element in any government exercising sovereign control over another government. Therefore, it is indispensably critical to the New World Order Plan to establish a permanent military for the United Nations. Never mind that this permanent military, which was voted into being at this United Nations conference, was a small force, which could not challenge the armed forces of any medium to large nation. The Six-Step Attitudinal Change Plan, according to which all modern history has flowed, merely envisions opening the door just a crack. Once the door has been thus opened, it can be opened much further. We have just seen the door open just a crack with this vote to establish a permanent UN military force.

Further, this was also one of the stated goals of New World Order planners before, during and after the Persian Gulf War.

On August 20, 1990, just weeks after the initial invasion of Kuwait, New World Order leader, Zbigniew Brzezinski, wrote an opinion column entitled, "The Persian Gulf: Why We Are Really There". Brzezinski stated, "...An international response is in order, and that is why the United Nations has adopted its condemnatory stand...If the international community...can achieve the expulsion of Iraq...it will establish an important lesson and give the world a commendable example of international cooperation in the first major crisis of the post-Cold War era. It will establish an important precedent for the future." Brzezinski makes it very clear he is talking about the UN mounting a truly international effort and implied that this effort would result in a permanent military.

Then, in a key article in the Spring, 1991, issue of Foreign Affairs, an article entitled "The UN In A New World Order", argues forcefully that the Gulf War clearly showed the need for a permanent UN military. The article concludes its argument in a most revealing statement, "Some UN capacity to carry out these functions [of a military response] will therefore be desirable...The Security Council should be able to mobilize a force to serve under UN command for enforcement purposes. That capacity may be virtually indispensable in an emergent world order. The chance to achieve it should not be missed." (p.83).

This article was written at the time when American and British forces were organizing under the UN flag to protect Kurdish refugees from Saddam Hussein's vindictive forces. Now, a year later, the time has come for the UN to be given its permanent military force. The companion article in the Providence Journal, 2/1/92, page A4, states, "The proposal seems to build on the experience of last year's Persian Gulf war, in which a UN force established a protected enclave in northern Iraq to shield Kurdish refugees from Iraqi military attacks." Thus, Brzezinski's words on August 20, 1990, about "setting a precedent" take on new meaning. This was the plan all along to defeat Hussein thoroughly enough so he and the entire world knew he was completely beaten, yet leave him alive and in control of a sovereign Iraq. In many instances throughout this past year, we have seen the UN take actions against Iraq that violated its national sovereignty. The precedent has been set for the United Nations to violate and over-ride any nation's sovereignty. The door to this type of action has also been opened just a crack. The time is somber.

Secondly, these articles make it extremely clear that the New World Order is being consummated along the lines of finally achieving "peace and safety". Remember Paul's inspired words in 1 Thessalonians 5:3, "When people are saying 'peace and safety', then in a moment, unforeseen death shall come upon them as suddenly as labor pains come upon a woman, and no man shall escape." In these two articles, the words peace and safety are mentioned 8 times. We cannot miss a sentence in the Sun Chronicle which uses both these words in one sentence, "This means stopping crisis from turning into wars by supplying troops to a Security Council force for the purpose of maintaining international peace and security."

But this was also the Plan from the beginning. Writing in October, 1939, Alice Bailey stated the goal, "Through the Christ and the Buddha, humanity can now establish a close relationship with Shamballa ... Pervaded by light and controlled by the Spirit of Peace, the expression of humanity's will-to-good can emanate powerfully...Thus, humanity will become eventually the planetary savior." (Alice Bailey The Externalisation of the Hierarchy, p. 163).

Through Peace and the safety which will come about by man's will-to-good (inherent goodness), Bailey foresaw the birth of the New World Order. Because man is inherently good, all that is necessary to achieve Peace and Safety in the world is for men to arise who are filled with the Light from Shamballa and who are ready and willing to exercise their wills in pursuit of right. Of course, this concept absolutely contradicts Biblical Truth, which states emphatically that man's basic nature is evil, not good. God stated emphatically, in Jeremiah 17:9, "The heart is deceitful above all things and desperately wicked: who can know it?" In other words, man is so wicked that no other man can ever know the true depths of another's wickedness. We certainly can see the true nature of man when we study world history. History is really the study of man's wars, separated only by brief periods of peace. I am amazed that people could today believe in the inherent goodness of man, after 6,000 years of continuous war, and after the most violent and bloody century in history, but Satan has successfully implanted this lie in the minds of billions rebellious people.

Let us now return to our 2/1/92 NEWS BRIEF.

"[Russian President] Yeltsin called for further far-reaching disarmament measures, including deep cuts in strategic and tactical nuclear weapons, limiting and eventually eliminating nuclear testing, [and] cuts in conventional armaments..." (Providence Journal, "Leaders Pledge To Back Peacekeeping", 2-1-92). Yeltsin concluded, "Our world is still a dangerous world, ripe with too many weapons."

This emphasis upon disarmament should not surprise us, because disarmament of the nations has been a fundamental goal of the New World Order since 1939, when Bailey first espoused it, as we quoted above. However, this Disarmament Plan needed updating after the introduction of atomic bombs in 1945. Accordingly, in April, 1946, Bailey, wrote. "The atomic bomb does not belong to the three nations who perfected it and who own the secrets at present...It belongs to the United Nations for use..or for threatened use when aggressive action on the part of any nation rears its ugly head." (Alice Bailey, The Externalisation of the Hierarchy, p. 548).

We have quoted this incredible statement before, and we will shout it from the housetops again and again, because it reveals so very much about the true character of the New World Order. It also reveals how Biblical prophecy of continuous war in the Great Tribulation could be fulfilled.

Keep several points in mind about Bailey's statement.

1. Complete disarmament, including nuclear, is still a key part of the Plan to establish the New World Order.

2. Even though the world is being told that this new system of government will result in peace and safety, the spiritual leadership is threatening nuclear war against any nation who opposes the rule of the New World Order.
3. Obviously, the peace of which Bailey speaks does not carry the same meaning of which we are familiar. Rather, it carries the same meaning as Communism: The peace of the grave for those who oppose its rule, and the peace of slavery for those who acquiesce to its rule.
4. The same Alice Bailey which speaks so repeatedly of the love emanating from Shamballa and from the Christ, thinks nothing of threatening nuclear war against any who oppose the New World Order. We know from Jesus' teaching that evil actions begin in the mind; therefore, the evil which will plunge the world into the wars of the Great Tribulation was present already in the heart of Alice Bailey, the greatest of the White Magic practitioners. Truly, Anton LaVey was correct when he states in his book, The Satanic Bible, that there is no such thing as White and Black Magic -- they both serve the same Lord Satan.

Do not be deceived by this wonderful talk of disarmament. Satan is setting the stage for his all-out war. Put on your spiritual glasses so you may discern the truth.

This article in the Sun Chronicle, "UN Leads New World Order", makes a very interesting statement that, quite possibly, the "nuclear genie" cannot "be stuffed back into the bottle". Indeed, how can the peoples of the world be persuaded to accept the New World Order goal of 100% nuclear disarmament? In a nuclear-free world, a madman with just a few nuclear bombs can rule the world. This problem has been addressed by the planners for the New World Order. The answer to this problem evidently is a staged nuclear confrontation. If people had just gone through a scenario in which it seemed that we had just nearly blown the world apart, they would rise up as one and say, "We don't care what the risks are, let's get rid of these nuclear weapons."

One author, Ralph Epperson, writes in the Unseen Hand that Americans are being maneuvered into a position of being absolutely terrified by such a nuclear confrontation. He states, "when the Russian government threatens America with nuclear war, the American people will demand that their government accept any solution other than war...[the solution] will be that the merging of the two countries into a world government will suffice..." (p. 408). Thus, the answer to the solution to this crisis is that the weapons would be transferred to the United Nations, bringing us to the point of which Alice Bailey wrote so many years ago.

Epperson then lists three other factors which must be in place before this planned crisis explodes.

1. The American President must be a Republican. He cannot be a Democrat because the Democratic Party carries the stigma of being soft on Communism.

2. The American President must be experienced in world affairs and must have a record of standing up against those evil Communists.
3. The American President must have shown success in foreign affairs, so that people will believe him when he shows great strength and determination during this crisis.

I believe several other factors might also be deemed necessary for this type scenario to succeed.

1. If people are going to trust the American and Russian leaders to lead us out of the crisis, these two leaders must be viewed as being innocent of starting the crisis. If one of the leaders is seen as being responsible for beginning the crisis then no one will trust him to get rid of all his nuclear weapons. Therefore:
2. The scenario must develop in such a way as to make it appear that the crisis was started by a third party. This scenario would then set the stage for the American President and some Russian leader to appear to rush in to save the world from nuclear destruction.

We are not sure how this scenario will develop, but we are clearly on this path. Many articles have been written in the past 6 months which are conditioning us to the possibility that nuclear holocaust could result from the break-up of the USSR into component states, each of which possesses nuclear weapons. Then, on November 25, 1991, CNN aired a documentary entitled, "Doomsday Government", in which they reported that President Reagan, in 1983, created a Secret Government which would guarantee the continuity of Democratic Government during a nuclear crisis. After reporting how this Secret Government is constituted, CNN revealed that this plan was so flawed that it could not possibly function. However, it was the only plan we have. If this terrifying news was not enough, the article had many scenes of a massive nuclear explosions filling the screen. We are clearly being conditioned to believe that we could be threatened with nuclear weapons from a source other than the original Communist Government. But, why should we be surprised when the goal is to persuade the American people to allow a transfer of all weapons to the benevolent United Nations? But, there may be more.

Christian author, Bill Cooper, in his book, Behold A Pale Horse, writes that one of the scenarios to persuade Americans to transfer nuclear weapons was a nuclear threat against our cities by unidentified Arab terrorist organizations. When I read this, I discounted it as being too far-out, but I was startled when this CNN documentary concluded with a report that this "Doomsday Government" would remain in place because of a nuclear threat to our cities by Arab extremist organizations. Certainly, this scenario is possible, because some of the original Russian republics who have now broken away possess nuclear weapons. Also, Hussein of Iraq and Quaddafi of Lybia are reportedly close to developing a nuclear device.

Whatever form the final crisis takes, remember the Plan is to panic Americans into allowing the transfer of all our weapons to the United Nations.

Is it conceivable that, even after being sacred to death by a staged nuclear crisis, Americans and others will still be reluctant to entrust such powerful weapons to the still-unproven United Nations? This question must, indeed, haunt the planners for the New World Order. At this point, allow me to ask a rhetorical question: Wouldn't people trust God, or a God-like figure, with nuclear weapons? If an infinitely-wise individual were to arise to take control of the United Nations, people might very well be persuaded that he possessed the necessary wisdom and love for mankind to ensure that these weapons were destroyed. He could literally be trusted to "stuff the nuclear genie back into the bottle".

We are being conditioned to this scenario. The New Age magazine, The Christian Science World Monitor, in its February, 1992, magazine, prints an article by Lincoln Bloomfeld, entitled "The Battle Of The Neos". This article lays out a blueprint for finally establishing the New World Order. Bloomfeld states, on page 32, that "a workable international system...requires a hegemon, an overall leader". The usage of this word, hegemon, is interesting. My dictionary defines it as "a leader who exercises dominance". Who might be this type of dominant leader of the emerging New World Order? It could be none other than Maitreya the Christ, of whom New Age leaders have been writing for decades. Maitreya will arise as an all-wise spiritual leader who alone can lead the world out of the mess in which we are currently sinking, and into a new period of peace and safety. He will claim to be Jesus Christ returned, the Jewish Messiah, the spirit of Buddha and Mohammed. In other words, he will be claiming to be a God-like figure. If he arose to take control of nuclear weapons, I think it conceivable that Americans would agree to allow them to be transferred to the United Nations. In reading between the lines, I think it conceivable that this may be the Plan.

The news reports on this extra-ordinary United Nations meeting concludes that the Presidents of the Nations comprising the Security Council discussed the problems facing the world today. These problems were "plagues of hunger, disease, illiteracy, pollution...growing indebtedness, galloping population...and the Palestinian problem". These issues are precisely those of which Alice Bailey was talking in 1939. Her answer to all these problems was spiritually based. The Great One, the Christ, was needed to provide the kind of wise leadership which would solve all these problems. In as many ways as you want to count, the peoples of the world are being prepared for the very dramatic appearance of the Christ, Lord Maitreya.

This appearance is planned to coincide with events which are a fulfillment of events of which Jesus prophesied in Matthew 24 -- wars, rumors of wars, earthquakes in many parts of the world, famines, and diseases. When he arises, demonstrating tremendous supernatural signs and wonders, he will "solve" many of these crises, thus demonstrating his supernatural origins. The peoples of the world will accept him wholeheartedly. Do not be deceived.

When I survey the flow of news events in today's world, I believe this time of Maitreya's appearance may be very close. At this point, mankind will be witnessing the fulfillment of Revelation 6:2, the rider of the White Horse. This event excites me because it signals the Rapture of the Church. Not only does the Bible foretell it, but, since 1987, the guiding demonic spirits of New Age leaders have been preparing their followers for the simultaneous disappearance of millions of people world-wide. They state that this disappearance will occur shortly after Maitreya arises, and will occur because these people would never accept Maitreya's claims. Therefore, the Masters of the Illuminati in Shamballa will super-naturally transfer these people to another dimension, to re-train our spirits to accept the New Age.

This gobble-de-gook is simply New Age lingo which explains away the rapture. Watch your daily newspapers. Watch for the continued march toward Peace and Safety and for the emerging One-World Government, Economy, and Religion. As the world passes through the birth pangs of Matthew 24, Christians will have an unprecedented opportunity to share Jesus Christ with the unsaved, resulting in the world-wide end-time harvest of souls of which many Christian leaders have been predicting.

The time of the blessed hope of the Christians will be upon us as Jesus Christ returns for His Church. Are you ready?
